

SON THREE

WILLIAM BLACK AND JANET WALLACE

OF CALDERHEAD AND RASHIERIGG

Creator: Thomson, John, 1777- ca. 1840 Johnson, William, fl. 1806-1840.

Maps showing where this branch of the family lived.

MELODIES AND MEMORIES PP 209-210

William, third Liltie-co-kee son, was in Calderhead Farm, his wife's name being Janet Wallace. Sons - William, Robert, Richard, David. There seems to be good evidence that David, youngest son, was born at Rashierigg Farm in 1774, therefore William and his wife must have gone from Calderhead to the former place. William and his wife, Janet Brown, were in Dyke Farm, Cambusnethan, having three sons and three daughters. William was married to Jane Wilson, Mains Farm, Harthill. Robert second son married Miss Russell, Uddingston, while Richard, the younger son, was married to Margaret Forsyth, Baton. Of Calderhead second son nothing can be told, Richard, third son, with his wife Jane Samuel, were in Starrishaw Farm. Their only son, William went to America. Their daughter Agnes, as previously stated became Mrs John Black, while the other daughter, Jane was Mrs David Black.

David, fourth Calderhead son, had as his wife, Margaret Thomson, Muirhead, and became proprietor of New Mill, near Allanton. Happy man to be a laird! There were four sons and one daughter, the sons being William, bachelor; James, whose son, James, and grandson, James, have their home at Allanton still; Richard, and David (bachelor).

The above Richard had two sons, David and William, the former became a sheep farmer at Northlands, Eskdale, New Zealand, with four sons Richard, Alexander, David, James, and at least one grandson. David, like many other Scots abroad, loves well the old kindred and homeland. William, Richard's second son is a merchant, residing with his wife in Hamilton. Mrs Sommerville and Mrs Thomson, Richard's daughters, live, the former in Glasgow and the latter at Bankhead Farm, Belshill.

*Reminder: * as JB didn't mention this individual, their story ends in the table whereas ^ tells you there is another generation within this document.*

WILLIAM BLACK AND JANET WALLACE

Residence - Calderhead, Shotts, Lanark
Rashierigg, Whitburn, West Lothian

William, third Liltie-co-kee son, was in Calderhead Farm, his wife's name being Janet Wallace. Sons William, Robert, Richard, David. There seems to be good evidence that David, youngest son, was born at Rashierigg Farm in 1774, therefore William and his wife must have gone from Calderhead to the former place.

WILLIAM BLACK

William, the third son, was born at Cleughhead and baptised on 11 September 1726 in West Calder.

September 11th 1726
William Black in Cleughhead had a son Baptised called William

Parish baptism records - West Calder, Midlothian.

JANET WALLACE

Janet's birth isn't identified with certainty.<sup>1</sup>

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

William and Janet married on 18 January 1761 at Whitburn when William was in his thirties.

9th from William Black & Janet Wallace
Both in this parish - - - - - 26

Parish marriage records - Whitburn, West Lothian.

Only the four sons listed in Melodies and Memories were found and all were born in Whitburn.

---

| CHILDREN       | BIRTH/BAP                | BIRTHPLACE | PARISH   | MARRIED             | DEATH/BUR          |

Despite John Black's claim, there is no concrete evidence yet that the family lived at Calderhead, a farm very close to Shotts and about six miles from Liltie-co-kee. When their first child was baptised William and Janet's residence was described as 'Braes'. This location could possibly relate to Braehead near Fauldhouse. According to Melodies and Memories when Richard was baptised in 1768, this was already their home. Today Rashierigg is a small street in Longridge.

DEATH AND BURIAL

David, their youngest child's birth was given as 16 October 1774 and his mother Janet was buried two weeks later on 5 November 1774. Childbirth complications seem the obvious cause. William does not appear to have remarried and was buried on 1 December 1800 in Whitburn aged 74.

SECOND GENERATION

WILLIAM BLACK AND JANET BROWN

Residence - Dyke Farm, Cambusnethan, Lanark

William and his wife, Janet Brown, were in Dyke Farm, Cambusnethan, having three sons and three daughters. William ... Robert ... Richard ...

WILLIAM BLACK

William was born on 18 December 1761 at Braes.

Parish baptism records – Whitburn Parish, West Lothian.

William remained single for many years and we believe the following document relates to him. Melodies and Memories states he farmed at Dyke Farm, Cambusnethan and the property below is described as West Calderhead. Reference to the first map on the front page will show west of Calderhead is Dykehead probably the location of Dyke Farm. Payment was being made for five horses in 1798 when William was 36.

<sup>2</sup> This birth date is from Find a Grave; however this is only five months after the older brother's baptism so one date may be inaccurate.

SON-3-WILLIAM BLACK AND JANET WALLACE

Farm Horse Tax 1797-1798, Volume 10 Parish of Cambusnethan, Lanark.

JANET BROWN

Janet’s baptism isn’t found but the census shows she was born around 1780 in Shotts. Her death certificate states her father was Robert Brown and her mother Margaret Steel.

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

The marriage, found in Shotts, was in 1807 so William would have been 45 when he married Janet and she was around 27.

DEATH AND BURIAL

William is thought to have died in 1840 in Cambusnethan, but we have no evidence to support this claim. Janet was not home in 1841 and the eldest son living at home, Richard, aged 23 was given as the head of the house. Alexander, aged one, was Margaret's illegitimate son.

In 1851, Janet was a pauper in Springbank, Shotts. Margaret's two illegitimate sons William Brown aged 20 and Alexander Black, now eleven, were also in the household.

Janet died on 12 December 1857 in Shotts and was buried in the churchyard there according to her death certificate

ROBERT BLACK AND ELIZABETH WESTON

Of Calderhead second son [Robert] nothing can be told.

ROBERT BLACK

Robert was baptised on 4 April 1762 at Whitburn. A posting on Ancestry states Robert came to 'Georgetown, South Carolina along with two brothers, names not known.' We know this cannot be right but Robert certainly had cousins that we cannot trace, so emigration to America is a plausible explanation for their absence in the Scottish records. It was also claimed Robert had travelled to America as an indentured servant and worked out the cost of his passage on a plantation. We have estimated, based on his age, that he emigrated around 1780, or possibly 1783, after the War of Independence ended. Records support he did not fight in the war but was later awarded by the State of Carolina, 412 acres in an area now known as Colleton.

SON-3-WILLIAM BLACK AND JANET WALLACE

ELIZABETH WESTON

Nothing is currently known about Elizabeth.

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

We assume they married around 1791 and found only two children.

The 1790 census in St Bartholomew Parish, shows only a summary of the people in the household. So there was one male over sixteen (Robert) three males under sixteen (Robert junior plus two others), three females (Robert's wife and two other unknown females) and no slaves. persons. It is likely then they had more children that did not survive.

DEATH AND BURIAL

Robert died on 16 October 1807 in Colleton, South Carolina. Elizabeth lived until at least 1820. Their only son Robert fought in the Civil War for the South. He may have been a doctor but was a farmer in 1850.

RICHARD BLACK AND JANE (JEAN) SAMUEL

Residence - Starryshaw Farm, Shotts, Lanark

Richard, third son, with his wife, Jane Samuel, was in Starryshaw Farm. Their only son, William, went to America. Their daughter Agnes ... while the other daughter, Jane ...

SON-3-WILLIAM BLACK AND JANET WALLACE

RICHARD BLACK

When we ordered Richard's baptism, we did not expect to be told his parents were living at Breakfast! He was born on 5 September 1768 and baptised on 23 October 1768 in Whitburn.

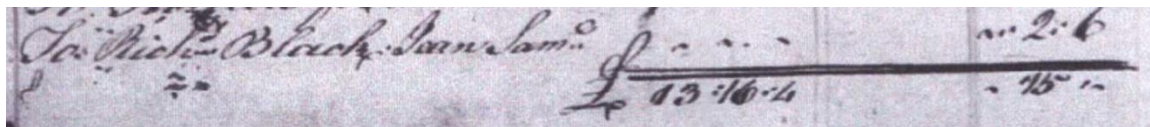

Parish baptism records – Whitburn, West Lothian.

JANE (JEAN) SAMUEL

A possible baptism for Jean Samuel on 29 May 1774 was recorded in Uphall with a father James, but this cannot be verified.

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

Richard and Jean married on 19 May 1798 in Shotts when Richard was 29.

Parish marriage records - Shotts, Lanark.

Six children were located. Agnes was baptised at Whitburn for some reason.

We assume the last child John, died young as Melodies and Memories, states William was their only son. Two of Richard and Jean's girls married other descendants of our Black family.

DEATH AND BURIAL

Richard regularly contributed to the poor, funding Shotts parish between 1800 and 1802. A death was not located for Richard but one tree records his burial as 5 January 1814 at Whitburn. His youngest child would have been only four.

SON-3-WILLIAM BLACK AND JANET WALLACE

Jean was still alive in Longridge in 1841 and described as Jean Samuel aged 65; she had two other people in the house; Richard Black aged 25 an iron miner and Jean Waddel aged 15 a female servant. Richard was a nephew of her husband. Jean died before 1851.<sup>3</sup>

DAVID BLACK AND MARGARET THOMSON

Residence - New Mill, Allanton, Shotts, Lanark

David, fourth Calderhead son, had as his wife, Margaret Thomson, Muirhead, and became proprietor of New Mill, near Allanton. Happy man to be a laird! There were four sons and one daughter, the sons being William, bachelor; James, ...; Richard, and David (bachelor).

DAVID BLACK

David was born on 1 October 1774 at Rashierigg Farm. His mother died a month after his birth.

MARGARET THOMSON

Margaret Thomson was from the parish of Shotts and Muirhead was a farm west of the village of Harthill. Her birth is not obvious, but we think she was younger than David, and her birth has been estimated at 1786. Some trees have her parents as William Thomson and Helen or Janet Meek but have no birthdate for her for we are not sure if this parentage is accurate.

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

The marriage took place in Shotts when David was 33.

THIRD GENERATION

CHILDREN OF WILLIAM BLACK AND JANET BROWN

MARGARET BLACK

William and his wife, Janet Brown, were in Dyke Farm, Cambusnethan, having three sons and three daughters [Margaret].

Margaret was born in 98 September 1808 at Dyke Farm. We found she had two illegitimate children.

William's father was given as Edward Brown. William was not found in 1841 but was living with his mother in 1851.

Parish baptism records – Shotts Parish, Lanark.

SON-3-WILLIAM BLACK AND JANET WALLACE

Eleven years later Alexander was born. He was baptised at Bonkle with no father listed. Margaret never married, she remained in Shotts and worked as an agricultural labourer.

DEATH AND BURIAL

Margaret died in 1888 aged 79. Her nephew Robert was the informant.

JANET BLACK AND JAMES CUTHBERTSON

William and his wife, Janet Brown, were in Dyke Farm, Cambusnethan, having three sons and three daughters [Janet].

JANET BLACK

Janet was born on 9 December 1809. Initially we thought she had died young but when JB mentioned a third daughter, we hunted for a marriage rather than a death.

JAMES CUTHBERTSON

James, the son of Henry Cuthbertson and Ann Morrice (Morris) was born on 12 September 1911 in Kirkliston.

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

Janet and James married on 4 December 1835 in Cramond. Two parents by this name caused confusion for a while but in the end, we decided they had only two known children, despite the long period between marriage and the first child located.

SON-3-WILLIAM BLACK AND JANET WALLACE

The family were found consistently at 20 Lapidice Place, Leith.

DEATH AND BURIAL

James was the first to die in 1879 and Janet died on 7 February 1892. Neither daughter married and they were all buried in Warriston Cemetery, Edinburgh.

WILLIAM BLACK AND JANE (JEAN) WILSON

Residence - Fortissat Hillhead, Shotts, Lanark

William was married to Jane Wilson, Mains Farm, Harthill.

WILLIAM BLACK

William was born in Shotts Parish on 6 December 1811.

JANE WILSON

Jane claimed, both in the census and on her marriage, to have been born in Shotts so she was baptised on 18 June 1817 to William Wilson and Jane Atchison and this was later confirmed on her death certificate.

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

William and Jane married on 29 September 1844. Their children were not named in Melodies and Memories but six were located. The 1851 census shows them at Fortissat Farm, a short distance today from Shotts Prison today and very close to Mains. William was an agricultural labourer.

By 1851 they had three children and the reference in the census to young William attending a public school must be commented on. It obviously was a source of pride that he was attending such an institution.

By 1861 three more children had been born and they were living in Graystonelee Cottage. In 1871 William was a 'Contrasta at Oil Worth' living at 4 McGenie Lane. Both William and Jane were found on the 1881 census living on McGuire's land. Possibly these last two locations are the same and have been transcribed incorrectly on Ancestry.

DEATH AND BURIAL

William died on 6 June 1888 in Dykehead and by then he was 76 and described as a farm labourer.

ROBERT BLACK AND JANET RUSSELL

Residence - Uddingston, Bothwell, Lanark
Bothwell, Lanark
Cambusnethan, Lanark
Wishaw, Cambusnethan, Lanark

Robert, second son, married Miss Russell, Uddingston.

ROBERT BLACK

Robert was born in 1813 in Dyke Farm, Cambusnethan.

JANET RUSSELL

'Miss Russell' of Uddingston was Janet Russell and Uddingston is in Bothwell, Lanark. She was born about 1813 to parents Robert Russell and Catherine Gray.

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

The marriage is estimated around 1838 and the 1841 census is one of the oddest seen. It infers Janet was not the mother of Robert's first two children as her name follows the children's. No births can be found for five of the six children to test this theory.

In 1851 Robert was not living with the family (and he is not located). Janet's address was still Uddingston and she was described as an iron turner's wife. The child, Agnes Mochrie Black, who died in 1860 aged nine months appears to be theirs but they were living in Old Monkland and Robert was a shoemaker.

In 1861 they were in Bothwell.

MARY BLACK AND JOHN HADDOW

William and his wife, Janet Brown, were in Dyke Farm, Cambusnethan, having three sons and three daughters [Mary].

Mary's birth at Dyke Farm has been estimated around 1815.

JOHN HADDOW

John, the son of John Haddow and Margaret Thomson was born about 1815.

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

The marriage was in Shotts after the 1841 census on 11 December 1841. We found six children,

In 1861 the family were living on Thomson's Land in Shotts; Janet had died and Margaret had left home. In 1901 Mary was still alive aged 86 and her son James aged 42 was at home plus a thirteen-year-old grandson also named James.

DEATH AND BURIAL

John died in 1874 in Calderhead and Mary died on 18 December 1903.

RICHARD BLACK AND MARGARET FORSYTH

Residence - Parkside, Shotts, Lanark
Dykehead, Shotts, Lanark

Cambusnethan, Lanark
New Monkland, Lanark

Richard, the younger son, was married to Margaret Forsyth, Baton.

RICHARD BLACK

Richard was employed in iron-coal foundries or factories all his working life. He was born in 1818 in Cambusnethan.

MARGARET FORSYTH

Margaret more correctly came from Easter Baton Farm, halfway between Harthill and Shotts. She was the child of William Forsyth and Margaret Marshall and born in 1820.

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

They were married in Shotts Parish and had seven known children.

The last child Jane was born in Cambusnethan so we assume the family resided there for a while. In 1881 the family were living at 2 Bell Street, New Monkland, Lanark. Richard was 63 an 'engine fitter at works'. This was also the address given on Jane's marriage to Robert Ross.

DEATH AND BURIAL

Richard died from heart disease on 26 January 1886 at Shotts.

Margaret was still at Bell Street in 1891; she had three grandchildren living with her and was working as machinist. She died on 21 September 1902 aged 82.

DAVID BLACK, MARY DUNLOP AND JANET SERVICE

David, the fourth son and youngest child was not mentioned by JB. He had twelve children from two marriages and died in Glasgow in 1896. His third child, James Dunlop Black born 1849 married his first cousin, Jane Black born abt 1847 in Shotts,

William born on 13 August 1807 in Shotts, went to America according to JB. Trees on Ancestry show he died on Prince Edward Island in Canada in 1884 but show no proof for these events. We are not sure if he married but various trees show different wives from Jane Whyte to Isabella Moses then Margaret Patterson then Isabella Margaret. All we can say is that William is a work in progress!

AGNES BLACK AND JOHN BLACK

SON-3-WILLIAM BLACK AND JANET WALLACE

Their daughter Agnes, as previously stated became Mrs John Black,

See Son-2.1-William Black and Jean Clealand (though the family will also appear on the tree for this branch).

William was born on 13 December 1809. In 1841 he was living, with his parents but by 1851 he was the landed proprietor farmer of 21 acres at Newmill as both his parents had died. His three younger brothers were also in residence.

DEATH AND BURIAL

William died on 12 March 1855 and was buried at Shotts. His death certificate (which is too poor to reproduce) says he died at Newmill and his brother James was the informant.

JAMES BLACK, JANET HADDOW AND MARY RAE

Residence - Newmill Farm, Allanton, Shotts, Lanark

James, whose son, James, and grandson, James, have their home at Allanton still

JAMES BLACK

James, the second son was born in 1813 at Newmill Farm. In 1851 he was a farm servant living with his siblings at Newmill. In the household that night was Janet Haddow a house servant aged 28. James's father had died and his older brother William was shown as the head of the household. Four years later William died also, so James, being the next in line, took over the farm.

JANET HADDOW

SON-3-WILLIAM BLACK AND JANET WALLACE

Janet was born about 1823 in Shotts. Both her parents (John Haddow and Margaret Thomson) had died by the time she was seventeen so she sought employment with the Black family at Newmill Farm. She gave birth to a son James Black around 1853 but we suspect, as the couple were not married, she left her employment before the birth.

Janet died on 18 June 1856 of scarlet fever. The informant was her brother John, who was married to Mary Black (James Black's first cousin) and he recorded Janet as being single. Her son was three years old when she died.

MARY RAE

Mary Rae was from Islay, Argyll and was baptised to parents James Rae and Marjory Kerr in December 1829.

MARRIAGE

James and Mary married in Shotts on 18 November 1856 just a few months after the death of Janet Haddow. His status as a bachelor was confirmed on the certificate.

RICHARD BLACK

Richard was born in 1815 at Newmill, Shotts.

SON-3-WILLIAM BLACK AND JANET WALLACE

AGNES MORTON

Richard's first wife Agnes Morton was born around 1820 in Whitburn. Her parents were John Morton and Jean Smith.

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

Richard and Agnes Morton married after the 1841 census. Their first child David was born in 1842 and we find his death at the age of one in the Shotts Parish records. It is unknown why the birth was recorded in Shotts as they were living at Longridge in the Parish of Whitburn and their child David was buried there also.

In 1855 the three surviving children were entered into the Whitburn Parish records with their birthdates and their birthplaces were stated as Longridge. Their mother Agnes Morton had died before these entries were made.

AGNES BLACK

Agnes was born at Blackburn and baptised on 21 February 1829 at Whitburn the child of John Black and Agnes Black. (Agnes Black her mother was from Son-3-William, and John Black was from Son-2-John.)

MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

Richard's second wife was therefore his first cousin once removed. Agnes and Richard married on 28 December 1855 in Whitburn. They had one child William, born on 25 April 1857.

Margaret (his youngest child from his first wife) had gone to live with his brother James Black and his wife Mary Rae. This arrangement seemed permanent as she was living with them in 1871 also. By 1871 Richard had married again and had moved to Cambusnethan where he was living at Allanton, still working as a corn miller. (Allanton was the home his brother James).

CATHERINE MORRISON

Catherine the daughter of John Morrison and Flora Livingstone was born around 1836 in Kilmeny on the Isle of Islay according to the census. She is a bit of mystery.

MARRIAGE

At the age of 54 Richard married for the third time in 1869.
